Our Professional Services

Professional Services

£1,055.00

- Advice and information regarding Registration of the death.
- The personal attention of the Funeral Director.
- Arranging a date and time for the Service, according to your instructions. We will contact the Church, Cemetery or Crematorium and the officiant who will be conducting the Service, to arrange a mutually convenient date and time.
- Advising on all necessary paperwork and procedures.
- Dealing with all necessary paperwork to enable burial or cremation to take place.
- If required, arranging for catering at a venue of your choice following the Service. (Our Bridport Funeral Home has a function room adjacent to the Service Chapel, where refreshments can be provided by us or yourselves).
- Arranging special musical requests for the Service, such as digital downloads, cds, a soloist piper or choir, as well as ordering music on the digital Crematorium systems, if required.
- Ordering floral tributes on behalf of the family.
- Acceptance and care for floral tributes delivered to our premises prior to the Service and delivery to a local place of your choosing after the Service, if required.
- Accepting donations for nominated charities in lieu of flowers on your behalf, providing a list of those who have donated after the Service and administering funds direct to Charities.
- Collection and care of the Ashes in accordance with your wishes.
- A complimentary online tribute where online donations can be collected through our partnership with Muchloved.

*In our Seaton, Ottery St. Mary and Bridport Funeral Homes we have Service Rooms where ceremonies can be held.
We do not normally charge for the use of these rooms.*
