INFORMATION NEEDED TO REGISTER A DEATH

FULL NAMES: _____

DATE OF DEATH: _____

PLACE OF DEATH: _____

LAST ADDRESS: _____

DATE OF BIRTH: _____

PLACE OF BIRTH: _____

MARITAL STATUS: _____

MAIDEN NAME: _____

OCCUPATION: _____

SPOUSE'S FULL NAME AND

When someone dies, the doctor who was treating them will issue a
Medical Certificate of Cause of Death.

This certificate will be sent electronically direct to the Registrar.

If a death is sudden or the doctor is unavailable, it may not be possible for a Medical Certificate of Cause of Death to be issued. In this case, the death will be reported to the Coroner, which may lead to a delay in registering.

Registration should take place at a Registration Office in the District where the death occurred. However, it is possible to register from outside the area by 'declaration'. This process can take a few more days than usual and we will advise you of all the necessary steps.

ITEMS TO TAKE WITH YOU

The person registering must take proof of their own identification.

It is always useful (but not essential) to take the Birth Certificate and (if applicable) Marriage Certificate of the person who has died.

The Registrar will ask for their:-

NHS number

National Insurance Number

WHAT THE REGISTRAR WILL ISSUE

A GREEN CERTIFICATE (The Registrar's Certificate for Burial or Cremation)
The Registrar can send the Green Certificate directly to us by email if you give them permission to. This Certificate is not issued if the Funeral is a Cremation and a Post Mortem was held.

DEATH CERTIFICATES (A Certified Copy of the Entry)

The original entry in the Register is retained by the Registrar but you can purchase Certified copies at £11.00 per copy. These are required by Banks, Insurance Companies, Solicitors etc.

TELL US ONCE (please see separate page for an explanation of this)

You will also be offered use of the Tell Us Once service to notify Government Departments and Local Authorities.

If this is not available, you will be offered a form called a BD8 which can be used to inform the Department for Work and Pensions.

If there is to be an Inquest and, therefore, you cannot register until after this has taken place, you can still ask the Registrar for access to Tell Us Once, once an Interim Death Certificate has been issued by the Coroner's Office.

We can guide you through all these processes.

Everyone grieves in a way that is unique to them and their relationship with the person who has died

We know that no one can understand exactly what your loss feels like, but we do understand that it is sometimes easier to talk to someone outside of your friends and family about grief and the impact of bereavement on your life and this is why we offer the Grief Chat service.

Real-time chats are available Monday to Friday between 9am to 9pm.
Outside those times, messages will be replied to by email.

Funeral Arrangements

As Funeral Directors, we will make all the funeral arrangements, as requested. We will guide you through all the options available to provide a completely individual service, tailored to your requirements. All types of religious and non-religious Services and Ceremonies are catered for.

We offer a completely confidential service at all times.

If the person dies in hospital

Contact us and all arrangements can then be made at your convenience.

If the person dies at home

Please inform the doctor immediately. The doctor or other medical professional can then attend and certify or verify the death.

We can then attend (at any time day or night) and bring the person into our care.

The Registrar

Once the necessary paperwork has been issued, an appointment to Register will be required. Full details can be found at the front of this booklet.

We will guide you through all the information required and assist you with making an appointment.

The Coroner

If the death is sudden or unexpected then the doctor must inform the police. They in turn report to the Coroner, who may request a post mortem. You should not be alarmed by this as, in most cases, it is only a formality.

We will liaise with the Coroner and advise you as necessary.

Charges

A written estimate will be forwarded to you after the funeral arrangements have been finalised. In most circumstances we do not require any payment in advance.

Chapel of Rest

Visits can be made to the Chapel of Rest by appointment.

Crematoria also have the facility for a Visual Tribute to be used during a Service. This allows photographs accompanied by music and video clips to be played during the Service to help create a meaningful and personal tribute. Suggested Poems

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no tears in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little – But not for long
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me – But let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone,
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to your friends that we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good works,
Miss me – But let me go

Christina Rossetti

Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there; I did not die.

Mary Elizabeth Frye

Suggested Poems

If I should go before the rest of you
Break not a flower or inscribe a stone,
Nor when I'm gone speak in a Sunday voice
But be the usual selves that I have known.

Weep if you must,
Parting is hell,
But life goes on
So sing as well.

Joyce Grenfell

Remember me when I am gone away,
Gone far away into the silent land;
When you can no more hold me by the hand,
Nor I half turn to go yet turning stay.

Remember me when no more day by day
You tell me of our future that you planned:
Only remember me: you understand
It will be late to counsel then or pray.

Yet if you should forget me for a while
And afterwards remember, do not grieve:
For if the darkness and corruption leave
A vestige of the thoughts that once I had,

Better by far you should forget and smile
Than that you should remember and be sad.

Christina Rossetti

Company History

A. G. Down Funeral Directors in Bridport was established by Arthur Down on his return from WW2 and sold to Eric Dunford in 1979. Eric was joined by his wife, Joyce, in 1985. Eric was born in Bridport and Joyce in the Marshwood Vale; both have strong connections within the local communities. They were joined by Joyce's son, Julian Hussey in the early nineties, after he had gained his Diploma in Funeral Director and having worked in the Funeral Profession in various parts of the country.

Having worked closely with W. G. Potter in Axminster, the family purchased this business on the 1st January 1992. At that time the Funeral Director at W. G. Potter was helping Overmass & Chapple in Seaton as their Funeral Director was unwell. The owners wished to sell the business and the three combined in May 1992. When Laurence Richards retired he wished for the name S. J. Richards & Son, Colyton to continue its association with the Funeral Business. We helped him to achieve this by incorporating the name alongside that of Overmass & Chapple.

Julian & Karen met whilst studying to become members of the British Institute of Embalmers, as she was working as a Funeral Director in Hampshire at the time. They married in 1995 and after raising their children, Karen joined the firm on a full time basis.

In spring 1999 contact was made by the owners of E. A. Dodd & Son in Honiton who wished to sell their business and this was completed on the 1st June 1999.

Having helped many families with the Otter Valley, it became apparent that we needed to offer families a Funeral Home in Ottery St. Mary. Under the established name of E. A. Dodd & Son we opened here in December 2016.

We are fortunate to have been joined by Funeral Director, Jerry Parkhouse in January 2012. Jerry was born in Exeter and brought up in Exmouth. He has an extensive background of over 30 years in the funeral industry and is well known in the local area.

In 2019, local Funeral Director, Darren Holt, joined the team at A. G. Down. Darren is an experienced Funeral Director who obtained his BIFD Diploma in Funeral Services in 2016 and is well known in the local community.

Both Julian and Karen's children, Jasmine and George, have joined the business, ensuring that the family's care continues into the future. Jasmine joined the family business on a full time basis in December 2022 after working part time for a number of years, whilst working at The Melplash Show. Having worked with the family for a year and a half, George then spent a year expanding his experience working for a well-respected Funeral and Repatriation Company in Croydon. He re-joined the family business in July 2022 and gained his Diploma in Funeral Directing in December 2022.
